PLAYING THUNDER?

Have you ever heard of that game? No? Well we scarcely thought you had. It was manufactured and patented for our exclusive benefit and therefore can be played by us alone.

It is quite a novel game too and is played on a very scientific basis and is also a game that even if others knew the princi ples of it they would scarcely payit. Well we are going to play it this entire week and would ask of you to come and assist us all in your power.

PLAYING THUNDER.

You have heard of that hackneved chestnut called 'Clear ance Sale" - well you have as an actuality brought one the coming week. Many people start a "Clearance Sale" on wind some on pretense, but very few on facts and we leave it to a discriminating public to judge which class to put us in. We could write a history about "Clearance Sales" that would prove interesting and parts of it make a horse laugh, but at present our business is "Clothing" while literature is not our diversion and as merchants desirous of being placed in the good class we are bound to observe the rules "Business first and pleasure afterwards."

PLAYING THUNDER.

Now we have lots of goods broken in sizes that are just as good as wheat in the mill and we want them to go and go they must We say "Stand not on the order of going but "Git" Now you can see from a few things we are going to let out at a figure, the nature of the man-

ANARCHISTS' DAY. $2,000 The Chicago Contingent Commemoral the Fall of the Bastile. CHICAGO, July 29 .- The one hundredth anniversary of the storming of the Bastile was celebrated by the socialist and anarchist societies in this city yesterday. It was a jubilee day for the anarchists. Mrs. Lucy T. Parsons, widow of the noted anarchist, made an incendiary speech, which was loudly applauded. She said the fall of the Bastile, while a blow at tyranny, did not destroy economic slavery. There must be another revolution—a revolution against the "bastiles" of labor. The people will rise and storm and capture those bastiles and they will bear out the heads of those devils, the capitalists, on the tops of pike staves. (Vociferous applause.) They presume to rule by the divine right of the rifle and the Gatling gun, the noose and the prison. You must selze those rifles and those Gatling guns, destroy the gallows and storm the prisons. You must not march in the street to be mowed down, but you must get within the walls and victory is yours. I say there will be a revolution. I say you men are brave enough to rise and put down the tyrants. The revolution comes; the red flag waves; the bastile falls; the common people are triumphant, and history repeats itself.

The crowd cheered itself hoarse at the conclusion of Mrs. Parson's speech. Paul Grattkau, the well-known anarchist, echoed the sentiments so vehemently expressed by Mrs. Parsons. rise and storm and capture those bastiles

No sooner had the engineers started out than they were followed by surveyors in the employ of speculators who will file on lands and water rights who will file on lands and water rights along the streams and gulches. Such a monopoly by speculators promises to defeat the plans of the government. One corporation outside of Idaho is attempting to own and control Bear river for a distance of 140 miles in Idaho, that they may sell water to the farmers and towns in Utah. Gov. In my opinion there are but two points that deserve to be nsidered in connection with the temporary location of the capital and they are Butte and Helena, and the weight of argument is in favor of Butte. It is even now the greatest railroad center of the territory It is the most populous city and ranks first also in point of commercial importance and the volume of business transacted. The Puget Sound Shore desires to sell its twenty miles of line and terminal facilities to the Northern Pacific, and it is at the instance of the Northern Pacific that the action is taken. As soon as the necessary power is conferred upon the Puget Sound Shore it will be discovered that in a jiffy the entire property of that company will be transferred to the Northern Pacific. The Northern has long desired to own its own line from Stuck June-
